IN MEMORY OF

He exemplified the finest in young manhood;
He believed in and inspired young people;
He served his fellow man;
He "marched breast forward, never doubting clouds would break."

LASTON McCULLEN GRANTHAM

FOREWORD

Because this was our second year of consolidation, we came together, a more closely-knit group. Our classmates were no longer new faces from Endy, Ridgecrest, Oakboro, and Stanfield: they were now old friends. Our purposes, achievements, and school spirit were more evident.

In the PEGASUS we have tried to capture this feeling of "oneness", of belonging. As the seasons unfold within these pages, may they bring vivid memories of your good times at West.

Seniors, when we have left West, and the business of making a living and raising a family overshadow our high school days, may this book be a reminder of our two fun-filled years at West.

Juniors, may this book inspire you to greater things for your class and for West.

Sophomores, you will be the first graduating class to have completed all four years at West. May you strive to make something better of the best.

Freshmen, may you develop a fierce pride in your school. Give it standards, traditions, uniqueness. Make it a being, not just a building.

We present the 1964 edition of the PEGASUS as a chronicle of this year--your year at West.

We didn't think those apples would work.

In the beginning . . . confusion . . . classes

September brought a new principal, a different faculty, and a huge throng of students! The eagerly awaited and sometimes dreaded opening days began with noisy chaos in the halls. New friends, new faces, new teachers, and new classes added to the hubbub. After a few weeks freshmen began finding their classes without aid and sophomores, juniors, and seniors became re-acquainted. Work and fun began; everyone knew the year was in full swing.

Help!

October brought the long-awaited Beta tapping ceremony. The impressive candlelight ceremony brought thirty-three new members into the club. Later on, some would be placed on the probation list, but for the present the ecstasy of being a Beta abated their fears and aroused their hopes.

"Out, out, brief candle"

Lucky Friday 13th -- West beats Parkwood -- 32 to 6

Fall . . . Fun . . . and Football

Crisp, cool autumn days call for football and the WSHS squad rallied to their call. The squad improved this year by winning two games, one against Parkwood, the other against Sun Valley. West fans gasped when Garland Carr was incapacitated as the result of a broken collar bone. Other boys were hurt; other games were played (some lost), but WSHS students still looked to their football team to boost school spirit.

Highlight of our Homecoming Game

Basketball, Parties, the excitement of Christmas

Watch it, you guys; this is THEIR goal!

Watch that elbow, Shot!

A geometry project?

The Juniors superbly presented "A Man Called Peter."

Sighs of Relief . . . Christmas Vacation

I'll never finish this book by tomorrow.

Winter Work and Worry . . . January Exams

Winter came to West Stanly High School bringing basketball season, more sock hops, Christmas vacation, mid-term exams (ugh), and (lo and behold!) class rings! The basketball teams won and lost, but always displayed good sportsmanship.

Everyone (teachers included) was gay after the short, exhilarating Christmas vacation. Three weeks later, mid-term examinations interrupted the students' dreams of being in a "Winter Wonderland". Many students burned the midnight oil cramming for the next day's exams. As the wear and tear of this experience wore off, seniors began to look toward the arrival of class rings. With February came the class rings and the revival of the annual practice of shaking hands (the better to show the ring).

Winter--another season of our final year at WSHS went by too fast!

Class Rings Sparkle . . . Seniors Glow

The Alpha and

ONE STEP AT A TIME

Mr. Shelton, "Did you know there was a dog in MACBETH?"

The final week, graduation practice, that strange feeling of joy and nostalgia, and the excitement of those last days brought the year to a close. Each event was greeted by Seniors' cries that it is the last. Underclassmen realized that there would be other high school years, but each felt the sentimental feeling that there would never be another year such as this. Looking back brought memories of work, pleasure, friendship, and the realization that the year had passed with the speed of wonderful times, leaving lasting memories.

Omega of Graduation

Fall

ADMINISTRATION . . .

Mr. Robert Garmon, the new principal of WSHS, graduated from Pfeiffer College with a Bachelor of Science Degree. He later earned his master's degree.

Previously he taught at Ridgecrest and was principal at Badin Elementary School.

Coming to West Stanly this year, Mr. Garmon accepted the responsibility of a consolidated high school only one year old. He quickly proved his capability as the school year began smoothly. As the school year progressed, his understanding and helpfulness earned him the respect of all the students. Everyone at West Stanly would like to say, "Thank you, Mr. Garmon, for your unlimited patience and co-operation."

Maid of Honor
Linda Burris

In 1963 West Stanly held its first Homecoming. Highlight of the Homecoming activities was the crowning of Homecoming Queen Kay Barbee. Escorted by Harry Lee Love, Miss Barbee was crowned by Student Council President Avery Love. She was then presented one dozen long-stemmed roses. Maid of Honor Linda Burris was escorted by Garland Carr. Junior attendants were Cheri Carter, escorted by Bobby Huneycutt; and Janice Hinson, escorted by Phil Burleson. Sophomore attendants were Linda Blake, escorted by Eddie Arrowood; and Pam Tucker, escorted by Gerald Efird. The freshman attendants were Kathy Plyler, escorted by Tony Kinley; and Lana Morgan, escorted by Johnny Brooks.

The Beta-sponsored event was held during halftime of the Harrisburg vs. West Stanly game. The entire program was "emceed" by Dianne Hatley. The hard work of the Betas resulted in a successful Homecoming.

With thirteen lettermen returning for the second year of the football program, the biggest problem the 1963 Colts encountered was a lack of experience and a need for a first win. This first win came in the game against Parkwood, the second game of the season, on Friday, the thirteenth of September, when the Colts rolled up a 32-6 victory. The Colts were deeply pleased, the crowd was happy, and the coaches were thrilled beyond words.

After this game came the days of black clouds and cold heartbreak. On one of these dark Friday evenings, West Stanly dropped a heart-breaker on Homecoming night to Harrisburg with a score of 0-6. The Colts lost a fumble in Harrisburg's end zone and possible victory. Then an encounter with Anson saw the Colts fall for a 13-19 loss.

The grand finale of the 1963 season came with a crushing victory over Sun Valley in which the Colts walked away with a 32-13 victory.

Much was learned through hard, tough experience, and next year the Colts, with work and increased desire and hustle, will be capable of holding their own and moving up the ladder of the Rocky River Conference.

Improvement was shown by the team effort. Individual trophies were awarded to Garland Carr, Most Valuable; Larry Wiley, Most Improved Back; and Gerald Winfree, Most Improved Lineman.

PEGASUS Individual Picture Staff: Carol Coble, Andria Barbee, Wanda Stewart, Kay Barbee, Judy Hahn.

A year in review is the 1964 Pegasus

The theme of the 1964 PEGASUS utilized the seasons--fall, winter, and spring--to depict the events of this wonderful school year. Selected early in the year, editor Dianne Helms planned the theme, chose the cover, selected the pictures, laid out pages, and co-ordinated the work of this publication.

Associate editor, Cheryel Huneycutt, was to be of every assistance to the editor. Business manager, Avery Love, and his assistant, Roger Thompson, had the tremendous responsibility of pulling the yearbook through financially. Individual picture editor, Wanda Stewart, had the mammoth task of picture identification. Jane Teeter, group picture editor, planned and helped supervise the making of group pictures. Typing editor, Cheri Carter, worked continuously to be sure all the copy for the annual was typed correctly. Ad managers, Barbara Drye and Jeannine Austin, worked very hard to secure ads. Patsy Stegall was subscription editor.

Dianne Helms, Editor-in-Chief;
Cheryel Huneycutt, Associate Editor.

Typists: (seated) Cheri Carter; Tonda Barbee.
Janice Dick, Lynette Whitley, Gail Burleson, Annette Clark.

Advisor: Mrs. Jean Grantham

The sponsors are Mrs. Grigg and Mrs. Bumgarner shown above talking to Avery Love, President.

Standing, class presidents; Wallace McLendon, Harold Edwards, Steve Whitley, Harry Lee Love. Committee Chairman: Garland Carr, Cheryl Huneycutt, Dot Whitley, Barbara Drye. Representatives: Freda Hatley, Sandra Almond, Hoyt Almond, Noel Hartsell.

Terry Goss--Sentinel; Phil Burleson--Vice-President; Dwight Burleson--President; Douglas Bowers--Secretary; Miky Huneycutt--Treasurer; Advisors--Mr. Pete Henkle and Mr. Lawrence Eller.

The FFA is an intra-curricular activity having its origin and root in a definite part of the school curriculum--vocational agriculture. Among other things, members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting; to speak in public; to buy and sell cooperatively; to solve their own problems; to finance themselves; and to assume civic responsibility.

The West Stanly FFA will be the successful farmers of tomorrow.

SCHOOL STORE STAFF

R. Hinson, I. Hunt, M. Eudy

Every day 670 students boarded the familiar orange school buses and rode to and from the different schools in the West Stanly area. Dependable student bus drivers transported fifteen buses full of lively riders from Endy, Locust, Oakboro, Ridgecrest and Stanfield.

As the bell rang for recess, the daily scramble started for the school store. Despite the hubbub, these girls managed a smile and prompt service for everyone.

Behind-the-scenes Workers

The cafeteria staff provided wholesome lunches each day for over six hundred "children". The custodians, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Burris, "cleaned house" night and day this year for almost seven hundred students. West Stanly has been fortunate to have these dedicated people serving the school.

DUKE POWER

All Your Cost-of-Living Items are Up---BUT ONE

In the past 20 years alone, most cost-of-living items have just about doubled in price

Except for electricity, WHICH HAS ACTUALLY COME DOWN. Fact!----Since 1943, the average cost of a kilowatt hour to Duke Power residential customers has DROPPED MORE THAN ONE-THIRD. In that same period, the USE of electricity has increased over 4 times, while the standard of living has gone up correspondingly.

It's truer today than ever----You live better, for less, electrically.
